

George Pemba's atmospheric In The Bus is one of 60 important South African paintings to be sold by Bernardi Auctioneers on Monday.

Aucor eases bidding

AUCOR has announced a partnership with Deposit Advantage (DA), a subsidiary of Hollard Insurance, which will allow registered buyers bidding on property auctions faster access to deposit finance as a substitute for cash deposits.

The partnership means that approved buyers will not be required to fund deposits prior to the registration of transfer.

Deposit Advantage, which has been operating in Australia since 1989, offers financial guarantees that postpone the deposit and commission payable to the seller and auctioneer once a successful bid has been made on the property in question. It is available for all property classes.

● For more details, visit www.aucor.com